

Workshop Day

Sunday November 29th 2026

An exciting opportunity to play alongside the well-established No1 Ladies Accordion Orchestra, with their unique blend of talent and passion!

We are thrilled to invite a range of different instrument players to join us for this fun and inspiring day of informal music making.

Participants will benefit from the expert direction of the orchestra's conductor, Jane Ward, who will work with us on three exciting and varied pieces.

Date: Sunday 29th Nov 2026

Venue: Jubilee House, Horton Rd, Stanton-St-John, Oxfordshire, OX33 1AG

Times: 9:30 for 10am start – depart at 3:30

Cost: £25 per person

Food/refreshments: Tea, coffee and cakes will be provided, but please bring your own lunch.

Who is it for?

Musicians (aged 18+) who play a melody instrument (in C), who can play to reasonable standard (music notation can be provided in advance, by request).

What to expect

We will be working on three pieces in parts, over three sessions throughout the day. You will need to bring your instrument, music stand and a pencil. At the end of the day we will make an informal audio recording of the pieces, which will be emailed to all participants. You will also be able to keep your printed music.

How do I sign up?

Complete the booking form on the website

<https://www.no1ladiesaccordionorchestra.co.uk>

Once your booking has been confirmed, you will be asked to make the payment to secure your place. Any queries to Enquiries@no1ladiesaccordionorchestra.co.uk